

Ms Andrea Bernadtzeder, is the Director: Aquaculture Research, Department of Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment (DFFE). Previously, Andrea was Operations Manager at the DFFE's Aquaculture Phakisa Delivery Unit as well as an Environmental Officer Specialised Production: Finfish farming monitoring. Andrea is the senior government representative on the SA Kelp project, which is implemented through the Bivalve Shellfish Association of SA (BSASA). She holds several degrees including an MSc and BSc Ichthyology and Fisheries Science from Rhodes University, and a BSc Environmental and Geographic Science and Ecology

from the University of Cape Town.