

Petronella Chaminuka (PhD) is the Acting Group Executive for Impact and Partnerships and Head of Economic Analysis at the Agricultural Research Council (ARC) of South Africa. Petronella is energetic and driven by a passion to build meta and soft skills capacity for impactful scientific research amongst young scholars. With PhD training from Wageningen University, Netherlands, she is a proponent of transdisciplinary approaches to research and amplifying the role of science and technology in addressing global challenges. She has more than 20 years' international work experience in university teaching and research, postgraduate student supervision, and consultancy. Petronella has authored more than 50 publications (journal articles, book chapters, and conference proceedings) and participated in various international multi-disciplinary research projects. Petronella is the lead author of A Call to Action from the Global South: Scaling the impact of innovation and research.