

Naledi Mpeke- Bio

Naledi Mpeke is a Project Leader and Community Builder focused on youth development and social impact. She serves as the Director's Secretary of Yuxplore, an NPO driving edutech solutions that empower young people with future-ready skills. Naledi is also a trainer and recently piloted the Level Up Programme at the University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN), equipping first-year students with soft skills and workplace readiness training.

In addition to her nonprofit work, she is a Client Relationship Manager at Discovery Health, where she builds strong client relationships through strategic support and service excellence. Naledi contributes to global policy as a member of both the B20 and Y20 Taskforces, and serves as a juror for apexart in New York, shaping international perspectives on arts, culture, and inclusion.

She holds a Diploma in Economics from Austin Peay State University and is currently pursuing a BCom in Finance, combining her passion for innovation and global collaboration to drive sustainable impact. Guided by her motto, "Stay hungry, stay foolish," Naledi uses her unique presence to foster creativity and enhance growth, versatility, and drive as solutions to the obstacles facing society.

